

I have lived in Germany for almost 2 years. I recently returned for my first visit in over 1 year. I was shocked and disgusted at the format and role of the American media, particularly the "news." I had NO IDEA it has gotten so bad or that the Germans were so right.

Please step in and take back our Airwaves.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It also shows the alarming trend of American media to add to the harmful polarization of the American public.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
